Kilpatrick

Insights: News

2022 Georgia Legal Awards | On the Rise: Eric Charity

JUNE 30, 2022

ERIC CHARITY

Born: 1988

Firm: Kilpatrick Townsend & Stockton

Law School: College of William & Mary, J.D., 2013

College: Pennsylvania State University, B.A., international politics, 2010

Nominator's Comments: "His practice is focused on representing lenders and borrowers in all aspects of secured and unsecured financing transactions in a wide variety of industries. Eric has also developed a unique niche in Native American lending. … His recent successes include first His recent successes include first chair representation of an agent bank in connection with $150 million in syndication loan facilities provided to a numismatic precious metals retailer."

Practice Areas: Commercial Finance team—His practice is focused on a range of credit transactions, representing agents, lenders, financial institutions, private equity groups, public and private companies and other business organizations.

Reprinted with permission from the June 6, 2022 edition of the DAILY REPORT © 2022 ALM Global Properties, LLC. All rights reserved.
Further duplication without permission is prohibited, contact 877-256-2472 or reprints@alm.com. # DR-6242022-552071

Related People

Eric M. Charity
Atlanta, GA
t 404.815.6017
echarity@ktslaw.com