Experience

Represented software manufacturer in several matters against automotive dealerships concerning the breach of software license agreements and enforcement of arbitration awards related to such claims.

Advised international automotive manufacturer on several matters regarding the validity, priority, and enforcement of liens and security interests on the dealerships' inventory and other collateral.

Represented international automotive manufacturer in several trial court matters and appeals concerning the termination of dealerships, petitions for emergency relief to prevent dealers from selling vehicles out of trust, and wrongful termination of dealership claims.

Represent manufacturer of after-market automotive parts in the trial of a multimillion dollar claim for wrongful termination of a distributorship agreement (defense verdict).

The firm served as lead counsel for an electric membership corporation in a lawsuit against the Georgia Department of Revenue concerning the valuation of the EMC's electrical distribution system for purposes of ad valorem taxation.

Defended Canadian corporation in federal court on claims for breach of contract and business torts. Negotiated a successful settlement while dispositive motions were pending.

Represented lender, in pursuing borrower and guarantor in a lawsuit for breach of a promissory note and breach of a guaranty agreement. Defeated motion for summary judgment for counterclaim for fraudulent inducement and securities fraud. Obtained summary judgment on the bank's affirmative claims on appeal.

Represented lender in connection with state and federal lawsuits in disputes against a borrower and guarantor over a $5.5 million loan. Obtained summary judgment in the federal lawsuit on the lender's affirmative claims for breach of contract.

Represented a municipality in breach of lease dispute.

Served as co-counsel for a general contractor in arbitration against concrete subcontractor for construction defects in an apartment complex.

Represented lender in multiple proceedings in state and federal courts regarding a mixed-use development securing $60 million in senior and junior loans. Coordinated strategy for (1) pursuing the client's affirmative claims in multiple lawsuits that were eventually consolidated in the bankruptcy court and (2) defending claims for business torts raised by the borrower and the guarantors. The case settled on favorable terms after the client won significant portions of the motion to dismiss.

The firm served as lead counsel for a non-profit healthcare organization in the trial of a dispute concerning exemption from ad valorem taxes. The jury granted the client's exemption.

Represented an investment banker in dispute regarding issuance of warrants.
