Insights: Publications

Protecting Software Related to a Medical Device: A Case Law Review and Strategy Guide

IPO Law Journal

APRIL 6, 2021 Written by

In a report published by Intellectual Property Owners Association (IPO), members of IPO's Software Related Inventions Committee and Artificial Intelligence and Other Emerging Technologies Committee discuss the developing space of legal treatment of medical devices and related software under U.S. patent law, including by the courts, as well as at the USPTO.