Insights: Publications

Should I Skip an Opening/Joint Session in a Construction Mediation?

American Bar Association, Practice Points

APRIL 2, 2021 Written by Brian R. Gaudet

Mediation is a dispute resolution process that involves people who have feelings, goals, and marching orders. It is not simply an emotionless calculator for determining a monetary settlement.

Related People

Brian R. Gaudet
t 281.809.4082
bgaudet@ktslaw.com