Mergers, Acquisitions, and Divestitures Guide

LDI Corporate Team, Legal Data Intelligence Resources

May 1, 2025

Written by Virginia Duke Ring

In the fast-paced world of mergers, acquisitions, and divestitures (MA&D), Legal Data Intelligence (LDI) professionals play a critical role in ensuring that information is accurately reviewed, managed, and leveraged for strategic decision-making. This guide, created by the Corporate LDI Architect team, serves as a comprehensive resource designed to streamline the due diligence process and provide key considerations when handling legal data in these transactions. This guide is intended to be a practical reference tool for helping LDI practitioners navigate complex transactions with clarity, efficiency, and confidence. Whether you are preparing for due diligence, evaluating regulatory risks, or ensuring data security compliance, this guide provides a structured approach to managing data in high-value transactions.
