For the Sixth Consecutive Year, Kilpatrick's Antitrust Team Ranked Among the World's Best in the GCR 100 2025

December 11, 2024

WASHINGTON, D.C. (December 11) — Kilpatrick announced today that its prominent Antitrust Team has been named one of the top antitrust practices globally by Global Competition Review (GCR) 100 – 25th Edition, the premier international journal of competition policy and regulation. This marks the sixth consecutive year and the 11th time overall that the Antitrust Team has received this prestigious recognition.

The Antitrust Team, led by Peter Boyle, has been highlighted for its adept representation of clients in a diverse array of complex antitrust issues over the past year. The team excels in litigation, government investigations, transactional matters, and high-level counseling, delivering thorough and strategic legal support to its clients.

The GCR 100 is a comprehensive, independent assessment of the world's top antitrust and competition practices. The prestigious GCR 100 offers extensive qualitative analysis of antitrust groups in jurisdictions around the world. Compiled by the staff of Global Competition Review, the publication profiles competition practices in 57 jurisdictions. A variety of criteria is used to establish this elite listing, including size, reputations of individual lawyers and stability of a firm's antitrust practice, among other things.
