

Insights: Publications

A Primer on the Ethics of Legal Advertising

Orange County Lawyer

June 1, 2018

---

Some law firms rely heavily on professional networks and repeat business from clients with recurring legal needs, while others must focus on messaging to a wider audience. Many lawyers do not fully appreciate the extent to which their advertising efforts are subject to regulation and ethical rules. Thus, we offer the following primer on ethical constraints applicable to lawyer advertising under California law.