

Insights: Publications

California Cracks Down on Competition—State Law Expansion to Monopolistic Behavior

Law.com

March 30, 2026

Written by Christine M. Morgan

California's legislature is considering major reforms to state antitrust law via a tiny semantic change that will pack a huge legislative punch. This change, while seemingly slight, has sweeping consequences. If passed, AB 1776 would extend the current law's reach to prohibit individual companies from engaging in monopolistic behavior.

Related People

Christine M. Morgan

t 415.273.4709

cmorgan@ktslaw.com