Mikail Clark specializes in mid-market mergers and acquisitions. He represents private equity firms with platform and add-on acquisitions, corporate recapitalizations and reorganizations, LBOs, growth equity investments, mezzanine financings, joint ventures, and licensing arrangements in manufacturing, financial services, technology, retail and consumer goods, and many other industries. He represents strategic buyers and sellers in all aspects of the deal life cycle, including negotiating the terms of LOIs, purchase agreements, and related post-closing arrangements (e.g., employment and contractor agreements, earnouts, and other contingent consideration, etc.). Mikail also represents emerging companies, founders, venture capital firms, and investors in early-stage financings. In addition, he assists clients with negotiating the terms of entity governance agreements and commercial contracts, providing pragmatic and efficient business and legal solutions.

Prior to joining the firm, Mikail was a corporate associate at a mid-size Charlotte firm where he specialized in sell-side M&A, commercial contract negotiation, and corporate governance. He also advised clients on private placement and tax matters. Previously, Mikail was an associate at a regional full-service law where he represented lenders and borrowers in various financial transactions and structures, including secured commercial credit facilities, acquisition financings, and asset-based lending.

Mikail was recognized as one of the "Best Lawyers: Ones to Watch" in 2026 and the five years immediately preceding for Corporate Law and again in 2027 for both Corporate Law and Mergers and Acquisitions Law by The Best Lawyers in America®. He was named one of Business North Carolina magazine's "Young Guns (Best Under 40)" in 2024.

Mikail is proficient in Spanish.
